

Guest Comments

“Thank you for all your care in preparing such lovely meals and making our rooms so comfortable.”

“You have made this a fantastic holiday for the ‘helpers’ as well as for the old folks group! We have really enjoyed being here and appreciate all you have done.”

“Thank you so much for all your hard work on our behalf this week-end. It is greatly appreciated.” (Order of the Cross)

“Just a quick note to thank you all for the warmth of our welcome and hospitality. I feel more spiritually alive. Thank you!” (John Bell Weekend)

“I liked a lot of things about Scottish Churches House: its warmth, physical and spiritual; its charming appearance and setting. Clearly it is struggling for survival. Let us hope it does.”

“You managed to organise a wedding better than the one in Bologna, these are the words of my father. The tables, the ceremony, the decorations, the food, the music, everything was wonderful, but the warm atmosphere made everything more than special. From me, just a big hug. Nicoletta.”

“Thank you all for providing a wonderful Funeral Tea on Thursday. I am aware that we somewhat underestimated the numbers and I would like to doubly thank you for coping so admirably with the difficulties it caused you... With love and gratitude.”

“... So did the Theological Summer School live up to my expectations? Yes, indeed, it did! I think it was extremely sensitively run, the leaders complementing each other well. The organisation was excellent and the programme had been well devised. Our guides... proved to be extremely knowledgeable and equally personable. Perhaps it was a little too intensive and there might have been more ‘space’, but it would have been very difficult to know what to omit. The House at Dunblane was ideal as the ‘base camp’ and the staff did us proud.”

“... I came to this Theological Summer School with the hope of discovering more about the Scottish spirituality and culture, not knowing that I would also learn a lot about 13 other cultures and spiritual traditions. I left this program very much enriched by everything I have learned and will continue to have an effect on me for the rest of my life.”